Her er et referat eller en afhandling eller en orientering eller måske nok mest af alt en opsamling eller evaluering af noget Ida Budde Kjær, Julie Hvass og Kate Mill har lavet det sidste halve års tid. Bogen starter den dag jorden går under og Julie og Ida beslutter sig for at lave en skole. Siden hen blev de venner og Kate kom ind i billedet.

Det hele vil udfolde sig kronologisk i denne bog.

Nu starter den.

Here is a report or a thesis or an orientation or perhaps most of all a summary or evaluation of something Ida budde Kjær, Julie Hvass and Kate Mill did over the last six months or so. The book starts the day Ida and Julie decide to start a school together. They later became friends and Kate showed up.

Everything will be revealed chronological in this book.

Now it begins.

Radikal åbenhed

Som i andre brydningstider viser de afgørende stød sig at ske, hvor afvisningen af det gamle ikke fører en hårdhed med sig men radikal åbenhed; der både gælder det nye og den tradition man er rundet af.

Stalking, but I guess it's not that big of a problem

This text is for you. I know you know who you are when you are reading this and find my name on this paper.

I never wanted to be a stalker, but I turned out to be one. Somehow it's very close to my person to seek hidden information, that should be held either a secret or irrelevant for anyone. But see. I pass the bikes standing in front of the school thinking..... which one of these bikes could have been yours. And I recognize the one and think about you. It is not really you I think of but the idea of you. And now I'm writing this text just to scare the shit out of you. First I wanted to write this text too good so you would be jealous of me and my skills. Then I realized that my real agenda was just to get your eyes on me again. Digging into this evilness I had in myself is a relief. I knew I had some bad manners, but I never met them. How can what you assumed to be love, put you in this nasty state of mind.

Og så lå hun der. Og så sagde han det. Og så grinede hun. Og så spurgte hun hvem hun var. Og så sagde han noget med at hun boede langt væk og at de selvfølgelig stadig skulle have det sjovt for hun var jo godt selskab. Og så spurgte hun om de var kærester ikke sådan rigtig måske lidt. Og så gik hun med sin cykel i hånden igennem havelågen og lukkede den ikke efter sig og gik med sin cykel i hånden hen til Kvickly og købte to franske hotdogs en til hver hånd franske håndjern og så tænkte hun på ham en til hver hånd jern på

Kære Kristine,

Måske har du lagt mærke til os, men vi er en skole, der hedder Lille Kat Emil (LKE) og vi lever side om side med din skole.

Mon, Mar 10, 1:37 PM
Interview med Max Power

Kære AGF og presse-ansvarlig for klubben,

Vi er en gruppe kunststuderende fra kunstakademiet i Odense, som for tiden arbejder med pseudonymer og power of names. Vi skal på ekskursion til Århus egnen den 20-21 marts og ville høre om det var muligt at stable et interview på benene med Max Power?

Tror I dette er en mulighed?

Kate Mill's report for the founding meeting of Lille Kat Emil (L.K.E.)

L.K.E. has had the best start a principal could imagine. The school isn't even founded yet, though we have already held an array of courses which all, if I should say so myself, have gone splendid. The first course ever at L.K.E. was a collaboration with Skriveholdet for potentiel litteratur in Svendborg. The course was a tryout, where we learned about creating our own writing course, which has form as K.M.W.E. (Kate Mills writing experience) taking place in my office every other wednesday. So far we have only gotten positive feedback on the writing courses, so this is a big success.

At L.K.E., we encourage student engagement, and help students in the best manner to get their various ideas going. A great example of a student run project is the school library. The library has already begun to form itself, through all the good work, excitement and energy from all the students of L.K.E.. To all the students I just want to say: This is your very own library. It has been a pleasure to assist your engagement.

We have had some technical courses on for example painting and arm wrestling, which have been well received by both teachers and students. We will see more of this kind of course in the near future like the upcoming frame workshop.

We are also happy to announce our excursion to Jylland. This will be the first longer excursion at L.K.E., and we look very much forward to this Until now there have been no problems with the economy or premises, and we hope this positive state continues.

Best from Kate Mill.

And remember; School is how school does.

Det regulære arbejdsmarked

Citat fra scandinavian star:

Det regulære arbejdsmarked har ikke noget rum for et menneske som hende, som indimellem skal bruge en hel dag på at græde eller ligge på en plæne og overrisles af angst, og aldrig ville kunne møde til tiden eller rigtig høre efter en besked

Der er også det her citat:

Der er en tavshed, en frygt for at være dum, der sætter ind der, hvor økonomien begynder.

GELWANE

Det er også særdeles vigtigt at ære GELWANE! En af de mest vigtigste figurer der optræder i/ på jellinge-stenens udhugninger. Det er også vigtigt at tænke på at, det var jo ikke alle der havde mestret at stave den gang i vikingetiden. Der er jo nærmest ingen der kan forstå de kragetær. Men GELWANE han havde sgu fat i den lange ende. Han kunne stave så man kunne forstå det.

Desuden er det også værd at bemærke at narrativet om at vi står på fortidens skuldre er helt på hovedet. I sandheden så ville alle fortidens personaer stoppe med at eksistere hvis vi holdt op med at snakke om dem hele tiden, og passe på alt det stads de har efterladt til os. - Ja jeg mener nu at fortiden står på vores skuldre. Og det burde de være taknemmelige for.

Ps tak for invitationen, det lyder herligt, men jeg kan ikke deltage

Kærlig hilsen Isak

Prison, classroom

Some acts are done against you to keep you in a certain character. Other acts are done by yourself, to confirm a character you feel safe playing. We copy the acts of other well performing characters. These other characters are acting so well, we believe them to be originals and not copies like ourselves. All these acts in total become a character pastiche - because this roleplay is really not that funny.

I grew up with this guy Mikkel. One day during a math class we locked him up in the cupboard, because he was really annoying. He was forced to sit there during the whole class, but the anger he held was so big that he broke himself free by kicking the door open. At the time of this episode Mikkel's dad was in prison. To be locked up was an act done against Mikkel. To be locked up was an act done against his dad. Both of them might have done an act themselves beforehand, where to be locked up was not the favorable outcome. An act with or without an agenda, an act out of desperation, or something else and so and so and so. But one thing for sure — I really don't think it was an act done to affirm a certain character, but it definitely did. Mikkel was the temperamental and the first one ever to call me a holy bitch.

My first bronze sculpture / erotic novel about the process of making a mold

I want him to put the grey two component silicone on me while I am still wet and he won't even wait for it to dry before he mixes the granulated plastic in the two component silicone and slaps it on me and it is messy but still so controlled. And I will get firm and he will be concerned about the small details before splits me down the middle with a cold clay wall and he starts to mix the loose powder with his lukewarm water and gently uses his fingers to cover me up. We will take a break for about 30 minutes before he lays his hands on me again and I will be warm and soft. I am used to his hands now as he removes the clay wall and clean me up and smeares a thick layer of vaseline on the plaster wall the clay left in the middle of me. He has a big tub of vaseline he uses for this purpose and he sticks his rough and dry hands down there and it must be a nice part of the process I think while I watch him do it multiple times. Now it is time to mix the loose powder with his lukewarm water again with fast movements from his underarm. Some spills but it is ok because he will clean me up. The two component grey silicone and the plaster and vaseline is like a warm firm hug around me. Soon he will open up the hug and I will feel the cold air again. He will use a sharp knife to cut the , now firmed, two layers of grey two component silicone almost in half and the tip of the knife will touch me as I am not important to him anymore and my letters will fall off and his fingers leaves incurable marks on me before he throws me in a basket on the floor. His eyes are cold now and his hands will now care for the grey two component silicone. Clean it carefully with cold water and air pressure put the plaster back around it secure it with a rubber band and he will chock it when he pours in the hot brown wax.

My first bronze sculpture

I was overwhelmed by all the naked women in the room. Felt like they were staring at me saying “let me out of this sweat stinking male gaze inferno atelier” and when he took it out of my hands to demonstrate for the boys how to do it. I don’t know. It was the disgusting egg salad and how they spilled it on the floor. And how he explained to me how beautiful organic shapes the clay can make. It inspired me and I enjoyed the experience.

I want to go to the bronze foundry where he will help me cast my first bronze sculpture. I think it will make him both proud and disappointed.

The big tub of marinated fish, and when his colleague and him laughingly told me the melting point of steel, I decided to make and serve the mushroom soup.

U can only write in the pov of an animal u can only write about people

They're so tall and unpleasant and loud and they never greet me when I enter a room and they try to kill me and my family and all the others and they have police cars with sirens that drive fast and everyone looks. Non of them looks at me unless the males are after me and they don't do anything they just scream with their ugly voices and points at me and the others and they probably talk about how fucked up this situation is for me but they will never do anything about it. And they will leave their beer cans and cigarettes in the grass and my children will think that it is food or toys and it will put me in yet another very sad situation.

Drømte i nat at jeg var gravid og lige inden jeg vågnede, føltes det som om at du lå bagved mig og holdt om mig. Du lagde din hånd på min gravide mave. Det var ikke vores barn. Kun mit. Men du passede på mig. Det var rart.

I drømmen kom min ekskæreste bag mig og forsøgte at spænde ben for mig. Han sprøjtede vand eller sæd ud over mine lægge og knæhaser. Tog hårdt fat i mine skuldre og gav mig et varmt og langt og velkendt kram. Han lignede sig selv, men yngre og pænere. Slankere og med lysere hår. Og han så glad ud. Jeg sagde til ham med mit ansigt mod hans bryst, inde i krammet, at jeg var gravid. Det ved jeg godt, svarede han. Det var heller ikke hans barn. Det var mit alene.

Hello SOS we love all that you are doing so so much. We might be your biggest fans.

Lille Kat Emil is a school based on the island Funen, the middle of DK. De Cay.

At the moment we are planning the summer-semester and we were wondering..... do you wanna teach us a lesson? Kate Mill is our principal and she is hosting a writing course every wednesday. Maybe you could teach in KMWE (Kate Mills Writing Experience).

We are writing you SOS because we were looking for your email (Ulrikke Bak) but it was impossible to find.....

Kisses and love and hugs and fandom from us

Lister

Ting der gør mig nervøs:

- Når man skal ud og rejse og den første del af rejsen er præcis den samme som hver gang man skal afsted i skole.
- Når toget dytter og / eller sænker farten.
- Mødre
- Lysegrå t shirts
- Hvis jeg ikke ved hvor jeg skal sove
- At have en samtale med min lærer mens mine klassekammerater kan høre det.
- Tog der er forsinkede eller aflyst.
- At tale engelsk sammen med mine forældre
- Helt nye ting
- Hvis nogen vil tage min hånd mens jeg har helt svedige håndflader.

Ting der gør mig taknemmelig:

- At se en hare
- At se et vildt dyr
- At holde et lille barn
- Mødre
- Når min ven giver mig den sidste ledige plads i toget så jeg kan sove
- Når bøgen springer ud
- Violer
- At være nogens ven
- At vi har en skuffe kun med sunlolly i fryseren derhjemme
- Folk der gør sig umage for at sige ordentligt farvel
- At dele
- Min cykel
- Gode bøger
- Når nogen stryger mig over ryggen
- Når en sammenfletning på motorvejen går perfekt
- Når min far tilbyder at hjælpe

Dyr jeg har set:

- Hare
- Rådyr
- Dådyr
- And
- Ål
- Hest
- Ged
- Stålmorm
- Snog
- Hugorm
- Frø
- Salamander
- Havørn
- Pukkelhval

- Delfin
- Marsvin
- Sæl
- Elg
- Gås
- Musvåge
- Mus
- Rotte
- Mår
- Ræv
- Grævling

Listen får mig til at tænke på det store dyr, der kravler i min væg og i mit loft. Jeg troede først det var flere mus. Jeg lå helt stille og lyttede. Jeg kunne høre tunge skridt med klør. En rotte måtte det være. Jeg kunne høre den smaske. Gå frem og tilbage. Lige oven over mig. Jeg skrev en sms til personen i rummet ved siden af. Kan du høre rotten, skrev jeg. Jeg kan høre et stort dyr. Personen svarede ikke på min sms, men næste gang vi så hinanden, sagde de at det må være en mår.

Liste over øer jeg har været på:

- Langeland
- Sjælland
- Fyn
- Jylland?
- Tåsinge
- Siø
- Ærø
- Avernakø
- Strynø
- Læsø
- Hvaler (Norge)
- Kirkeøy (Norge)
- Vesterøy (Norge)
- Forskellige små øer i den svenske skærgård (omkring Lysekil, Sverige)
- Australien
- Rømø
- Sylt (Tyskland)
- Amager
- Bornholm
- Thurø
- Lolland
- Falster
- Lanzarote (Spanien)
- Tenerife (Spanien)
- Thassos (Grækenland)
- Samos (Grækenland)
- Leros (Grækenland)

Jeg tror jeg kan se at jorden er rund mens jeg flyver. Og at skyerne ligner gletsjere, der er ved at styrte sammen.

Liste over ting jeg husker tydeligt fra det første døgn i Paris:

- En suppe med and og nudler og en grøntsag.
- En øl vi drak der smagte af blomster.
- En Dame i et antikvariat der ikke ville have jeg rørte ved bøgerne.
- Hende der serverede os vin i Belleville.
- Den tunge varme luft
- To lyserøde silkekjoler
- En kvinde med bare tæer der lå på fortovet og sov
- En ung mand med sjove briller på, hvis lejlighed vi var oppe i, der fortalte at alle i lejligheden kommer fra Toulouse.
- Ham der serverede os øl i Belleville.

Alice Notley

Introduction to the poem:

This poem is for Conrad's mother because she hates poetry but she likes this one

Quote from the poem as I remember it:

Im fucking lazy and unskilled and you deserve your money

hjerter

Sutte 1

I was on a date with a man who I now know is evil because I looked at his disgusting website. We snavede underneath this suttetræ in frb have where I also took the picture. His dog is currently dying.

Sutte 2

A couple of days later I went to the suttetræ again with j and w. We laid on the grass and ate pizza and tiramisu. The evil man drove past us on his disgusting omnium bike with his dog and he didn't say hi to me.

Sutte 3

There is a ghost in Iben's room and they already started the conversation about who should stay and who should go. I think Iben wants to stay. This is a regular castle. AM for AVE MARIA or MA for Marie-Antoinette. We have to talk with Eric tomorrow. He is the guy who kills the cocks when there are too many of them. Eric also stopped me from poisoning everyone at the communal dinner this night, because I picked the wrong fennel at first. Every cock should die.

Jeg henter Gilli på banegården

Jeg henter ham på banegården og løfter ham op. Han er i mine arme. Jeg bærer ham hele vejen ned af gågaden. Indtil jeg sætter ham og han kan gå selv.

Demand Change

Demolish Capitalism

- 1) Resistance as imperative
- 2) Tools, strategies, implements
- 3) Production of feeling
- 4) Art as a weapon
- 5) Working across levels
- 6)
- 7) Skills and distribution
- 8) Change of capital = terrain
- 9) Taking a side
- 10) Locality

Jeg vil aldrig arbejde gratis for det kommercielle marked
Jeg vil aldrig arbejde lønnet for det kommercielle marked
Jeg vil aldrig arbejde lønnet eller ulønnet for et kapitalistisk system

- 1 fordi det dræber
- 2 fordi det dræber
- 3 fordi det dræber

Længe troede jeg, at jeg kunne påtage mig rollen som agent uden at mit ståsted ville rykke sig eller blive påvirket. Men jeg er ikke en adem. Der findes ingen hård skal om mig. Hvis jeg placerer mig i de forkerte cirkler, skal jeg nok blive ond. Og alle ens valg spejler i sidste ende hvad man tror på. Hvis jeg vælger at arbejde gratis på et kommercielt galleri, så tror jeg på markedet, så tror jeg på det kapitalistiske system og dødsmaskinen. Derfor stopper det nu, og jeg har opsagt alle aftaler jeg nogensinde har haft med hr.

J:I just don't think I will be able to bring the right energy to the place, since I still have so much hatred rooted in me against the commercial marked.....

Gauli Zitter Gallery: Hey, bummer. Cheers.

Muren

At min seksualitet har sat mig i fare.

At min seksualitet fortsat sætter mig i fare.

At jeg hader alle jeg er tiltrukket af.

At alle jeg er tiltrukket af udelukkende ser mig som en fantasi og ikke et menneske.

At alle jeg er tiltrukket af er løgnere.

At jeg føler mig dum for at blive smigret.

At jeg føler mig overvåget.

At jeg konstant er i et blik.

At jeg konstant er bevidst om at jeg er i et blik.

At jeg underkaster mig det blik.

At jeg går på kompromis med min intuition for at please det blik.

Finally I can work in peace

Music on, left speaker only, yt video of someone driving downhill in dirt on a mountainbike, slow-motion, ofc. It's up on the big screen, lights out, front row chairs. salt and vinegar chips, a couple of stellas, green olives and matador mix. Finally I can work in peace.

now it is enough. what is it that they are doing with their hands that are bigger than ours where are they while the water is splitting the oil and the steam is greasing my hair. it hurts me when the worker is standing alone working always working. do you feel it?
 please tell me you feel it. but you are not a worker
 i am not a worker until i am with you. i am not a work -er until i am with you i am not a worker until i am with you please please you like fight -ing for the workers dont you. am i putting words in your mouth please tell me if i am putting words in your mouth i am not a worker until i am with you
 i am not a work
 -er until i am with you i am not a worker until i am with you i am not a worker
